Of Jackson County Sentinel, published at Gainesboro, Tenn., for April 1921.

State of Tennessee, County of Jackson.

Before me, a notary public in and for the State and county aforesaid, personally appeared G. B. Gailbreath, who, having been duly sworn according to law, deposes and says that he is the business manager of the Sentinel, and that the names and addresses of the owners, and publishers are: E. W. Tardy and G. B. Gailbreath, Gainesboro, Tenn. That the known bondholders, mortgagees, and other security holders owning or holding 1 per cent or more of total amount of bonds, mortgages, or other securities are: none.

G. B. Gailbreath.
Sworn to and subscribed before me this 8th day of April, 1921.
W. F. Sadler, N. P.

Fred Myers, of Carthage, editor of the Carthage Courier, honored the Sentinel with his presence a few minutes Thursday. Mr. Myers is a jolly good fellow and we are always glad to have him with us.

cipal of Celina High school, H.
G. Maxie, the newly elected superintendent of Clay county, and Grady Sidwell of Celina, were in Gainesboro Thursday, en route to Nashville, where they will attend the State teachers meeting.

Hugh Darwin of Sparta, manager of the Sparta Auto Co., was in Gainesboro last Friday.
Mr. Darwin sold eleven cars in three days that week, which is prima-facie evidence that business is good in that respect.
Hugh, as most everybody knows, hails from Jackson county, and of course the bet is, he is making good.

Miss Margaret Haile entertained a number of her little friends Saturday night. Those present were, Aline Brooks, Pley Johnson, Sallie Keen Gist, Frances Wooten, Evelyn Settle, Ethel Reeves, Ruth Young, Fred Tardy, Jr., Morgan Johnson, Ed Draper, Bill Sadler, Victor McDearman, Ray Tardy, John Irwin Gist, and Joe Spivey.
Miss Alice Tardy and Dona Vanhooser assisted in receiving the guests.

GEORGE H. DENNIS

It is with sorrow we note the death of our friend, George H.
Dennis, which occurred at his home two miles south of Hendersonville, Sumner county, Friday, April 8 at 11 o'clock A. M., following an operation for appendicitis. He had only been sick a few days and the news of his death was a great shock to his many friends in this county.

The funeral was held Saturday morning at 10 o'clock at the Hendersonville M. E. church, conducted by the pastor, Rev.
Keithly, who paid a glowing tribute to the deceased. Special music was rendered by the choir, and the beautiful floral offerings and the large audience attested to the high esteem in which the deceased was held by his neighbors. Interment occurred in the cemetery adjoining the church.

The deceased is survived by his wife and seven children, Mai, Charles, Miles, Sirina, George, Haskell and Joe; two sisters, Mrs. Sarah Howell, Gainesboro R-4, Mrs. Aletha Pel-phrey, Coalinga, Calif., and one brother, Wm. Dennis, Gainesboro R-4.

George H. Dennis was the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs.
Ben Dennis, deceased, and was born February 5th, 1874, being 47 years, 2 months and 3 days old. In early manhood he linked his destiny with Miss Lizzie Spurlock, April 14th, 1896, with whom he lived 25 years. To this union 8 children were born, 7 of whom are living. His wife who survives him has lighted his pathway through life with love, joy and gladness, and during his sickness was like a ministering angel to him. He lived on his farm 1½ miles west of Gainesboro until the fall of 1917, when he moved to the Anderson farm near Hendersonville, and where he lived at the time of his death.
He was an industrious man, honest and upright in his dealings with fellow man, and liked by all who knew him. He heard the beautiful story of Jesus and His love and gave his heart to Him, joining the M. E. church at Hendersonville July 20, 1920.
During his illness his faith in the Saviour remained steadfast and strong, and although deeply regretting to leave his loved ones, when the end came he was prepared to enter into the future life, where he dwells with the blessed Lord.

His death has cast a shadow of gloom over the home, but through it all the radiant star of hope shines, pointing them to the Heavenly home, where the family can be united, if their trust is placed in Jesus.

A Friend.

The heavy frost of Sunday and Monday night played havoc with the gardens that were not covered, and finished the fruit crop.

The Third quarterly conference of the M. E. church will be held at Flynn's Lick on Monday, April 25, at 11 a. m. Presiding elder T. W. Noland will preach there Sunday night.

Bryan Smith, of Freestate, who has been spending the winter in Florence, Ala., returned home a few days ago. Mr.
Smith, who is a licensed engineer, will run on the Str. Fall, after a two weeks rest.

The death of George H. Dennis, which occurred at his home near Hendersonville last Friday morning, following an operation for appendicitis, was the cause of much sorrow throughout this county. The bereaved family have the sympathy of his host of Gainesboro friends.

Bascom Byrne of Granville, Lawrence Byrne of Eugene, Ore., and Mrs. Watts of Texas, are with their sister, Mrs. J. M.
Dowell, whose serious illness for the past several weeks has been a source of deep anxiety to her many friends.—Putnam County Herald.

B. C. Butler Appointed As- sistant Attorney General.

An act creating the office of assistant attorney general for the Fifth Judicial Circuit was passed by the Legislature just closed. B. C. Butler, mayor of Gainesboro and a member of the local bar, has accepted the appointment to the new office.
Mr. Butler, as will be remembered, has served in such capacity before, and is well qualified for place. White county has recently been added to this circuit, making it one of the largest in the state. The circuit now embraces eleven counties.

Cantrell--McDonald.

The marriage of Miss Florence Cantrell to Dr. M. M. McDonald was quietly solemnized on Saturday evening, April 2, at the home of Rev. Sam Edwards, who officiated in the impressive marriage service, in the presence of a few close friends of the contracting parties.

Both the bride and groom are well known and exceedingly popular in Cookeville and have a host of friends throughout this section.—Putnam County Herald.

Miss Cantrell is a Jackson countian, having spent her girlhood days in and near Flynn's Lick, four miles west of Gainesboro. She has numerous friends here to be interested in her marriage.

Former Jackson County Boy Granted Patent on Gate.

Rev. D. M. McCawley, formerly of Algood, but now of Taos, New Mexico, has secured a patent on an automatic gate, from the U. S. Patent office at Washington, and has filed a claim for a patent in Great Britain.

Mr. McCawley is looking for a partner to help manufacture and put the gate on the market and states that he prefers a Putnam county man.—Putnam County Herald.

Mr. McCawley is a native of Jackson County, and has a host of friends here who will be glad to learn that he has been successful in his undertaking.
